Arms Control and Non-Proliferation

The following is material to consider for your syllabus. Specifically, there is:

1. Scholarly writing on arms control and non-proliferation written by diverse scholars and experts
2. Scholarly writing providing geographic variety and geographically varied perspectives
3. Studies and analyses examining diversity, equity and inclusion-related dimensions of arms control and non-proliferation

This is a living document; resources will be added and altered over time to ensure timeliness and quality. We would welcome your contributions and feedback.

GENERAL TOPIC WRITING BY DIVERSE SCHOLARS

Key words: global arms control institutions, global institutional order inequality, institutional legacies

Key words: nuclear nonproliferation, nuclear weapons, arms control, international treaty

Key words: arms control, illegal arms transfers, prevention, arms transfers, international cooperation

Georgetown Institute for Women, Peace and Security

giwps.georgetown.edu

Key words: Strategic Offensive Reduction Treaty, intercontinental ballistic missiles, provisions, arms control

REGION-SPECIFIC DISCUSSIONS OF ARMS CONTROL AND NON-PROLIFERATION BY DIVERSE SCHOLARS

Key words: precision-guided, munitions arms control, nuclear deterrence, US-Russia relations, missile defense, strategic stability

Key words: arms control, South Asia’s security dilemma, India-Pakistan, China

Key words: national security, nuclear proliferation, arms control, military threats

Key words: economic sanctions, nuclear arms control, Atomare Abrüstung, diplomatic relations, economic sanctions, Energiepolitik, Internationale Politik

Key words: arms control, military relations, Japan

Key words: small arms proliferation, historical data and analysis, African continent

Key words: Africa, nuclear material, smuggling trends, uranium yellowcake, non-state actors, clandestine weapons development, nuclear terrorism

INTERSECTIONS: DEI & ARMS CONTROL AND NON-PROLIFERATION

Key words: arms control, disarmament, Non-Aligned Movement, small arms, treaty regimes, humanitarian action

Jinyuan Su, The environmental dimension of space arms control, Space Policy, Volume 29, Issue 1, 2013, Pages 58-66

Key words: international strategic balance, prevention of arms race, space policy, environmental instruments

Key words: semi-autonomous weapons, telerobotic, ethics, arms control treaty

Key words: cyber-warfare, conflict prevention, cyberspace, arm control
Cybersecurity

The following is material to consider for your syllabus. Specifically, there is:

1. Scholarly writing on cybersecurity written by diverse scholars and experts
2. Scholarly writing providing geographic variety and geographically varied perspectives
3. Studies and analyses examining diversity, equity and inclusion-related dimensions of cybersecurity

This is a living document; resources will be added and altered over time to ensure timeliness and quality. We would welcome your contributions and feedback.

GENERAL TOPIC WRITING BY DIVERSE SCHOLARS

Key words: prevention, safety and security measures, data security, cyberterrorism, social media, national security, information warfare

Key words: cybersecurity, tradition of “human security,” sovereignty, human-centric approach

Key words: cybersecurity, cyberspace, treaties, technology law, normativity, international cooperation, socialization, government regulation, governance

Key words: public–private collaboration, cybercrime, cybersecurity and national security
REGION-SPECIFIC DISCUSSIONS OF CYBERSECURITY BY DIVERSE SCHOLARS

Key words: emerging economies, cybersecurity infrastructure, national information infrastructure

Key words: cybercrime, cybersecurity infrastructure, social media

Key words: prevention, infrastructure (economics), safety and security measures, data security, comparative analysis, computer crimes

Key words: cybersecurity, China, industrial policy

INTERSECTIONS: DEI & CYBERSECURITY

Key words: cyber-security education, university, curriculum development

Lee Hadlington, Human factors in cybersecurity; examining the link between Internet addiction, impulsivity, attitudes towards cybersecurity, and risky cybersecurity behaviours, Heliyon, Volume 3, Issue 7, 2017, e00346

Key words: cybersecurity behaviours, internet addiction, impulsivity, cybercrime

Mohd Anwar, Wu He, Ivan Ash, Xiaohong Yuan, Ling Li, Li Xu. Gender difference and employees’ cybersecurity behaviors, Computers in Human Behavior, Volume 69, 2017, Pages 437-443

Key words: gender-wise differences, cybersecurity, self-efficacy and behavior

Key words: security exceptions, WTO, trade implications, Huawei
National Security and Defense

The following is material to consider for your syllabus. Specifically, there is:

1. Scholarly writing on national security and defense written by diverse scholars and experts
2. Scholarly writing providing geographic variety and geographically varied perspectives
3. Studies and analyses examining diversity, equity and inclusion-related dimensions of national security and defense

This is a living document; resources will be added and altered over time to ensure timeliness and quality. We would welcome your contributions and feedback.

GENERAL TOPIC WRITING BY DIVERSE SCHOLARS

Key words: national security, Third World, domestic cohesion, international cooperation, Tranquility Index

Key words: sovereignty, national security, limitation, the United States

Key words: national security, military strategy, air forces, government bureaucracy, terrorism, cold wars, governance, navies, military training, funding

Key words: global governance, national security, international security
REGION-SPECIFIC DISCUSSIONS OF NATIONAL SECURITY AND DEFENSE BY DIVERSE SCHOLARS

Key words: International Atomic Energy Agency, foreign policy, territorial dispute, maritime security, illegal fishing

Key words: foreign policy and security policy, national security, Serbia, Europe

Key words: defense spending and national security, economic growth and national security, national security of Pakistan, national security policy

Key words: China, the United States, national security, defense strategy

INTERSECTIONS: DEI & NATIONAL SECURITY AND DEFENSE

Key words: commercial trade offsets, countertrade, defense offsets, industrial participation, offsets

Key words: legislators, political conflict, defense spending, executive branch, political representation, political partisanship, war, conflict

Key words: conflict, Europe, feminism, gender equality, hegemonic masculinity

Key words: economy, crisis, effects, security, defense

Key words: national security, defense strategy, terrorism

Key words: populism, sovereignism, international security, defense
The following is material to consider for your syllabus. Specifically, there is:

1. Scholarly writing on nuclear proliferation written by diverse scholars and experts
2. Scholarly writing providing geographic variety and geographically varied perspectives
3. Studies and analyses examining diversity, equity and inclusion-related dimensions of nuclear proliferation

This is a living document; resources will be added and altered over time to ensure timeliness and quality. We would welcome your contributions and feedback.

GENERAL TOPICAL WRITING BY DIVERSE SCHOLARS

Key words: nuclear deterrence, cold wars, nuclear weapons, world wars, military strategy, Peacetime Systems theory

Key words: nuclear weapons, non-nuclear allies, nuclear proliferation, North Korea

REGION-SPECIFIC DISCUSSIONS OF NUCLEAR PROLIFERATION BY DIVERSE SCHOLARS

Key words: nuclear proliferation, Global South, South Africa's nuclear history, nuclear politics

Key words: national security, nuclear weapons, strategic forces, China, military policy

Key words: nuclear energy, nuclear proliferation, Japan, the United States

Key words: nuclear proliferation dynamics, conflict resolution, South Asia, Middle East

INTERSECTIONS: DEI & NUCLEAR PROLIFERATION

Key words: nuclear weapon, nuclear proliferation, political leaders
Peacekeeping

The following is material to consider for your syllabus. Specifically, there is:

1. Scholarly writing on peacekeeping written by diverse scholars and experts
2. Scholarly writing providing geographic variety and geographically varied perspectives
3. Studies and analyses examining diversity, equity and inclusion-related dimensions of peacekeeping

This is a living document; resources will be added and altered over time to ensure timeliness and quality. We would welcome your contributions and feedback.

GENERAL TOPIC WRITING BY DIVERSE SCHOLARS

Key words: violent conflict, conflict management, third-party military deployments

Key words: peacekeeping, UN commitment, involvement of great powers or regional organizations

Key words: United Nations, international organisations, peacekeeping, International Relations theory, realism, liberal institutionalism, rational choice institutionalism, sociological institutionalism, constructivism, practice theory, complexity theory, critical security studies, feminist institutionalism

Key words: international conflict, cultural norms, UN peacekeeping
REGION-SPECIFIC DISCUSSIONS OF PEACEKEEPING BY DIVERSE SCHOLARS

Key words: security doctrines, foreign policy roles, doctrinal policies and bureaucratic infighting

Key words: UN peacekeeping missions, China increased engagement

Key words: Brazil, Indonesia, peacekeeping, use of force, legitimate intervention, civil–military relations, emerging powers

Key words: peacekeeping, civil wars, United Nations, Africa

INTERSECTIONS: DEI & PEACEKEEPING

Key words: international peacebuilding organizations, peacekeeping, peacebuilding, and global governance

Key words: gender effect, women status, peacekeeping, post-conflict

Key words: peacekeeping, United Nations, UN Security Council Resolution 1325, gender equality, gender, women, peace, and security, Liberia, sexual violence, security sector

Key words: discursive constructions, local people, gender, masculinities, Haiti, Liberia, Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC)

Key words: UN peacekeeping, militarized masculinities, gender critique
Terrorism, Counter-terrorism and Violent Extremism

The following is material to consider for your syllabus. Specifically, there is:

1. Scholarly writing on terrorism, counter-terrorism, and violent extremism written by diverse scholars and experts
2. Scholarly writing providing geographic variety and geographically varied perspectives
3. Studies and analyses examining diversity, equity and inclusion-related dimensions of terrorism, counter-terrorism, and violent extremism

This is a living document; resources will be added and altered over time to ensure timeliness and quality. We would welcome your contributions and feedback.

GENERAL TOPICAL WRITING BY DIVERSE SCHOLARS

Key words: terrorism, historical context

Key words: suicide terrorism, coercion

Key words: demise of terrorism, terrorist campaigns, political negotiation

Key words: political extremism, violent extremism, peace negotiations, religious terrorism, peace treaties, peacetime, government, violence, critical values

Georgetown Institute for Women, Peace and Security
giwps.georgetown.edu
Key words: extremist organizations, counterstrategies, terrorist violence

Key words: terrorist organizations, quantitative analysis of terrorism, organization-level terrorist activity

Key words: violence against civilians, civil wars, political violence, violence, democracy, bombings, political conflict, domestic terrorism

Key words: international Security, armes de destruction massive, terrorism, technological innovations

REGION-SPECIFIC DISCUSSIONS OF TERRORISM BY DIVERSE SCHOLARS

Key words: expected utility, repression, religious terrorism, rational choice theory, violent crimes, constituents, datasets, military deterrence, political violence

Key words: leftist governments, U.S. relations, George W. Bush administration

Key words: political violence, democracy, cold wars, narcoterrorism, guerrilla warfare, violence, bombings, income inequality, rule of law

Key words: female bodies, Boko Haram, insurgency, northeast Nigeria

Key words: Al-Qaeda, ISIS, terrorism

Key words: the spread of crime, worldwide diffusion of terrorism, “domino effect”

Key words: regional terrorism, Jihad, EU, political violence

Key words: ISIS, jihadist army, Middle East, terrorism

INTERSECTIONS: DEI & TERRORISM

Key words: Boko Haram, gender, insurgency, objectification, women, victimhood

Key words: child terrorists, child soldiers, coercion, terrorist organization

Key words: ISIS, children’s rights, victimhood, terrorism

Key words: women’s participation, non-state armed groups

Key words: domestic terrorism, exclusion, economic discrimination, democracy, rule of law

Key words: women, terrorism narratives, violent extremism, gender, rehabilitation, stereotypes, trauma, recruitment

Key words: economic discrimination, religious terrorism, language minorities, political discrimination

Key words: women, violent extremism, women, peace, and security, prevention, agency, rights, instrumentalisation, radicalisation

Key words: women’s role, CVE, gender, counterterrorism
Transnational Crime

The following is material to consider for your syllabus. Specifically, there is:

1. Scholarly writing on transnational crime written by diverse scholars and experts
2. Scholarly writing providing geographic variety and geographically varied perspectives
3. Studies and analyses examining diversity, equity and inclusion-related dimensions of transnational crime

This is a living document; resources will be added and altered over time to ensure timeliness and quality. We would welcome your contributions and feedback.

GENERAL TOPICAL WRITING BY DIVERSE SCHOLARS

Key words: advocacy, conflict-related sexual violence, criminal policy, feminism, human trafficking, international crimes, legal strategies, NGO, prostitution, unintended consequences

Key words: geopolitics and transnational crime, illicit economy, cyberspace

Key words: transnational crimes, European Union, transnational terrorism, transnational environmental crime
REGION-SPECIFIC DISCUSSIONS OF TRANSNATIONAL CRIME BY DIVERSE SCHOLARS

Key words: Central America and Caribbean, cocaine, territorial groups, smuggling, trafficking

Key words: East Asia and the Pacific, migrant smuggling, illegal wildlife trade, illicit trade

Key words: ethnic groups, narco-traffickers, insurgents, terror organizations, Central Asia

Key words: West Africa, methamphetamine, smuggling of migrants, firearms trafficking, fraudulent essential medicines

INTERSECTIONS: DEI & TRANSNATIONAL CRIME

Key words: female criminality, women criminals, Mafia, organized crime

Key words: transnational environmental crime, third parties, national security, prevention

Key words: transnational crime, human rights, child sexual abuse, criminal law, legal status, laws, criminal jurisdiction, child sexual exploitation, exterritoriality

Key words: Gender, organized crime, transnational crime, human trafficking

Key words: transnational organized crime, female power
Women, Peace and Security

The Georgetown Institute for Women, Peace and Security developed a resource center for academics and practitioners interested in gender and conflict. Please visit our WPS Resource Center for nearly 2,000 articles, books, and other resources about women, peace and security.

The following is material to consider for your syllabus. Specifically, there is:

1. Scholarly writing on women, peace and security written by diverse scholars and experts
2. Scholarly writing providing geographic variety and geographically varied perspectives
3. Studies and analyses examining diversity, equity and inclusion-related dimensions of women, peace and security

This is a living document; resources will be added and altered over time to ensure timeliness and quality. We would welcome your contributions and feedback.

DISCUSSIONS OF THEORY BY DIVERSE SCHOLARS

Key words: gender, conflict, post-conflict, sexual violence, feminism, United Nations, Women, Peace and Security Agenda, international actors, peace, war

Key words: WPS agenda, women peace and security, UNSCR 1325, gender and security, UN Security Council, women’s rights, conflict and post-conflict

Key words: security of state, war, women in democracy

Key words: women’s linkage of state-level variables, state security

Key words: the futures of women, peace and security

Key words: women terrorism, feminism, political violation

Key words: anarchy, structure, gender, war

Key words: peace support operations, violent conflict, gender, national security forces and armed groups, peacemaking

REGION-SPECIFIC DISCUSSIONS OF WOMEN, PEACE AND SECURITY BY DIVERSE SCHOLARS

Key words: military battles, conflict-mitigating institutions, peace conceptualizations

Key words: United Nations Security Council Resolution 1325, peacekeeping, Africa.

Key words: maritime sector, human rights, National Action Plans, the field of women, peace and security, violent conflict, climate and environment, countering violent extremism, economic participation, human development, peacemaking, sexual and gender-based violence (SGBV), UN Resolutions, violent extremism

Key words: Pacific Island countries, peacebuilding, gendered regional peace

Key words: Sub-Saharan Africa, Mozambique, Liberia, Sierra Leone, Disarmament Demobilization and Reintegration (DDR), peacekeeping, post-conflict reconstruction, Security Sector Reform (SSR), transitional justice

Key words: gender equity development, European Union, international organization

Key words: Myanmar, Ukraine, peace and security mechanisms, advancing women’s rights

INTERSECTIONS: DEI & WOMEN, PEACE AND SECURITY

Key words: LGBTI movements, Iraq, activism, gender

Key words: WPS, SGBV, queer security analysis, cisprivilege, heteronormativity, gendered violence

Key words: inclusive security, statebuilding, democratization and political participation, peace accords, peacemaking, post-conflict reconstruction

Key words: UN Security Council Resolution 1325, reconceptualization of gender